Canon City (Colorado) Cannon.

comfortable and happy you will be. You need not fear that the very waves of the edge of the sea will be swirling and eddying waves and the air will greet you laden with the scent of many blossoms. Native boys will dive deeply down for the diamonds you toss overboard into the water—and they will get them, too. Automobiles will chug along on the wharf waiting for just you. Dozens of huckster-vendors will there to gobble up your whisky and add to the hearing of the "murmur of the deep," or to a perfectly kept jungle of tropical trees in the heart of which is a hotel, big, cool, and comfy. After a few days of delicious idleness and dreaming, with eyes wide open the spirit will tempt you to go sightseeing. If you are from the inland, the waterfront will be a new world. The sailing ships, the steamers that ply between the Orient and the Occident and from the North Coast to Australia are constant visitors to our port. The freighters loading on their

While rambling around you will stumble on the queer old Japanese brass worker, who sits on the floor of his little shop and works and works with the most primitive of tools. I am sure your heart cannot be satisfied until by dint of hard work, gestures, sketches and much pidgin English, you have made him understand just what you want in the way of a hand-wrought brass bug, a pair of candlesticks or a quaint hat that you have wanted for years to brighten up that dark corner in the library or hall.

A SUGGESTION

Many families make a practice of dining here each Sunday. Kaai's famous Exhibition Glee Club plays from 6 to 8 p. m. Table reservations may be made by phone any time during the day.
